Dear Friends,

It is our great pleasure to invite you to join us for the 28th Biennial Conference on Diseases of the Vulva and Vagina to be held on September 11-13, 2025 at the Embassy Suites Downtown Magnificent Mile, Chicago, Illinois. The Biennial Conference is a unique educational opportunity that allows providers to learn from the world's leading experts in a collaborative and supportive environment.

The International Society of Vulvovaginal Disease (ISSVD) is the only international organization with specific aims to educate all medical professionals providing care for children, adolescents and adults with vulvovaginal disease. The ISSVD meets every year around the world and provides a platform for networking and presenting research updates, uniform terminologies and new ideas and technologies.

The two-day conference encompasses essential lectures on vulvovaginal diseases with ample opportunity for discussion and case presentations. This conference is ideal for clinicians who treat patients with persistent or recurrent vulvar symptoms not explained by simple yeast infections or bacterial vaginosis. It will also benefit practitioners who treat itching, dyspareunia, and pain, as well as vaginal discharge, and chronic rashes. The conditions include recurrent candidiasis, lichen simplex chronicus, lichen planus, lichen sclerosus, vulvodinia, ulcers, and desquamative inflammatory vaginitis.

We expect 450+ registrants with a substantial proportion being key decision makers and budget holders for their health institutions. This conference has sold out the past several times it was offered. We also offer a virtual platform for virtual attendees and enduring materials. The attendees are mainly gynecologists, dermatologists, pathologists, oncologists and physical therapists.

We would be happy to discuss any opportunity that you may be able to offer to help bring this valuable education to the providers who need it.

Sincerely,

Debra Heller, MD
